about Piti @*

ptco.org

This is a unique opportunity for our community to invest in conserving space for arts and ecology in the Berkshire Foothills!

Join us to build resiliency by integrating the arts with a closer connection to our environment.

Phase 1:

Purchase of the barn and 17 acres

adding to the office space and 18 acres already secured.

Phase 2:

Barn renovations and landscape design for gardens and trails

Imagine what this place will provide...

- Performance Venue
- Nature Trails
- Apiary + Pollinator Gardens
- Camps & Classes
- Art-Farm Stand

Founded in 2004, Piti engages with over 5,000 people annually – especially youth in schools – through our ecologically-minded theatre productions and educational workshops.

Consider the benefits to...

- Local economy: More tourism, more jobs
- Children and Teens: engagement with the arts and the natural world
- Pollinators: pollinator sanctuary and educational apiary
- Community: more arts, more coming together = more resilience
- Local Farmers and Artisans: an "art-farm" stand
- Arts groups and Educators: an accessible Charlemont venue

"Piti" (pronounced "pea-tea") is a word from ancient India meaning "joy."
